"a" This deeply interesting Irish drama, by the suthor of "Peep o' Day," "Innistallen," Ac. is bull of bright, joyous action, and is a photograph of pastoral life in the seautiful Emerals liste! One seine, in the second ast, represents a field and merry groups of haymakers dament guoistly and clamorously through and around hillocks of new mown hay. This calls for a force of over By people! The picture is so resiliatio that one can almost smell the breezes off the Limcrick mountains! Other scenes, such as the FIGHT IN THE HAVIELD, THE VISION OF ELEKIN ORG and the ATTEMPTED BUB. TO THE HAUNTED MILL, are subjects of living pictures and afford scope for great spectacular effects.
